

REVELATION'S RHAPSODY

Listening to the Lyrics of the Lamb

March 21, 28
and
April 4, 11 and 18

Have you ever begun to read the book of Revelation only to be defeated by a swirling set of bewildering images: winged creatures, beasts, trumpets, bowls, the number 666?

If so, come and listen to Dr. Robert Lowery as he presents a seminar on his new publication Revelation's Rhapsody and as he discusses the "Lyrics of the Lamb".

This seminar will begin at 6:30 and will end at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Lowery's Revelation's Rhapsody is not a line-by-line commentary or detailed explanations for every symbol in Revelation. Dr. Lowery has provided general guidelines for interpreting what John was seeing and the message he was passing on from Christ to his readers. A thorough understanding of these guidelines will help each student delve into the mystery of Revelation and find a clear, easily understood message intended for Christians of every century.

Dr. Robert Lowery is Dean of the Seminary, Professor of New Testament at Lincoln Christian College and Seminary. He has been on the faculty since 1975. He earned a B.A. in Christian Ministries from Lincoln Christian College in 1970, a Master of Divinity from the Seminary in 1973, a Master of Theology from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in 1975, and a Doctor of Philosophy degree from the University of Aberdeen, Scotland, in 1991. Dr. Lowery has written for The Christian Standard, The Standard Lesson Commentary, The Lookout, and The Stone-Campbell Journal, and contributed to study notes on the Book of Revelation for Zondervan's Quest Study Bible.
